

Ohio Gas Association Cyber Security Technical Seminar

August 8, 2013

IGS, 6100 Emerald Parkway, Dublin, Ohio 43016

08:30 – 09:00	Registration
09:00 – 09:15	Welcome and Opening Remarks: Honorable Todd A. Snitchler, Chairman Public Utility Commission of Ohio
9:15 – 9:30	Who’s Playing in the Cyber Realm? Thomas Pearce, Senior Utility Specialist, PUCO and Chair, NARUC Staff Subcommittee on Critical Infrastructure
9:30 – 10:15	AGA Perspective on Federal Cybersecurity Legislation/Regulation Brian Caudill, American Gas Association, Senior Legislative Representative
10:15 – 10:30	Networking break
10:30 – 11:15	Economics of Security Jeff Hughes, President Tenet3
11:15 – 12:00	Protective Security Programs Jim Emery, Protective Security Advisor, US Department of Homeland Security and Faith Lawless, Cyber Analyst, Ohio Homeland Security Strategic Analysis & Information Center
12:00 – 12:55	Lunch
1:00-1:15	FBI’s Role In Cyber Special Agent K.C Bixby, Columbus Resident Agency, Cincinnati Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation
1:15 –2:45	Homeland Security Perspective: Building and Evaluating Cyber Resilience Bradford J. Willke, Cyber Security Advisor, Mid-Atlantic Region, Office of Cybersecurity & Communications, Department of Homeland Security
2:45 – 3:00	Networking Break

3:00 – 4:00

Utility Panel Discussion, moderated by Jimmy Stewart, OGA President

Panel members:

- Michael Estelle, Director, Information Technology and Security Operations, Columbia Gas of Ohio
- From Vectren Corporation: Walt Grudzinski, Director, Information Security and Business Continuity and Lou Brummett, Gas Control Supervisor
- Mike Hoffer, Manager, Gas Control, Duke Energy
- Mark Engels, Enterprise Technology Security and Compliance Director, Information Technology, Dominion Resources Services
- Cindy Reed, Vice President of Personnel & Information Technology, Ohio Gas Company

4:00 – 4:15

Final Remarks

Honorable Todd A. Snitchler, Chairman

Public Utility Commission of Ohio